C. USE OF CHILDSAFE STANDARDS, GUIDELINES AND PROCESSES

1. ChildSafe Limited is the absolute owner of the copyright in the ChildSafe SP3 Safety Management System ("the system"), including all ChildSafe publications, SMO, electronic resources and web content.
2. ChildSafe do not warrant all parts of the system to be error free, or that it will meet all of your requirements. Upon discovery of major errors in the system, ChildSafe will alert you and make alterations as technically feasible.
3. Use of this system does not ensure that you will not be liable for any claims relating to safety and care. The use, customisation, training, maintenance and implementation of the system are your responsibility.
4. You must promptly notify us of any actions, claims, suits, demands, proceedings, damages, compensation which may be brought or claimed against you arising out of the implementation or use of the system.
5. This agreement is made with your organisation only, and the obligations and benefits provided may not be assigned, transferred or sub-licensed by you without ChildSafe's prior written consent.
6. ChildSafe may assign its rights and obligations by notice in writing to you.

D. CHILDSAFE ARE NOT PROVIDING LEGAL ADVICE

1. ChildSafe are not lawyers and do not by the system or any training or consultation, provide legal advice.
2. Effort is and will be made to ensure that ChildSafe complies with relevant legal requirements (Australia wide). However ChildSafe cannot warrant this. If you are in any doubt about whether the system meets the legal requirements in your jurisdiction, we strongly recommend that you seek your own independent legal advice.

E. GENERAL

1. This agreement binds each of our respective personal representatives, administrators and permitted assigns.
2. This agreement is governed by the laws of Queensland, Australia and we all agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that State, the Federal Court of Australia and their respective appellate courts.
3. Notices may be given by email. However an email notice will not be deemed to be given, until there has been some form of acknowledgement of receipt from the receiver. A server automated receipt is not sufficient.
4. Given the highly regulated environment in which we are operating and the delivery of much of ChildSafe's service online, ChildSafe reserve the right to make changes to the Package Details (including Terms and Conditions). ChildSafe will seek to do so sparingly and if possible provide reasonable advance notice for consultation purposes.
5. If a party comprises more than one person or entity, they are bound jointly and severally.
6. To the fullest extent permitted by law, ChildSafe liability is limited to re-supplying or the cost of re-supplying (at ChildSafe election) the services contemplated by this agreement.
7. This agreement sets out all the terms of ChildSafe's agreement in relation to its subject matter and supersedes all prior communications and discussions.
8. ChildSafe Privacy Policy also forms part of this agreement. You acknowledge that you have read it and agree to its terms. A copy of the current version can be found at www.childsafe.org.au/privacy-policy

F. TERMINATION

1. ChildSafe will endeavour to keep any future increases in subscription fees reasonable. However, ChildSafe reserve the right to alter the fees in future.
2. Failure to pay your annual subscription fee when due will result in the suspension of access to ChildSafe SP3 materials, and after a reasonable time period to termination of this agreement.
3. ChildSafe may terminate this agreement by notice in writing to you in the event that you fail to remedy any breach of this agreement within a reasonable time after requested in writing to do so.
4. ChildSafe may also terminate this agreement if your organisation goes into administration.
5. You may terminate this agreement by not less than 30 days advance notice in writing to ChildSafe.
