Duncan Armstrong - a household name when he claimed one of only three Olympic Gold medals Australia won at the Seoul Games in 1988. Duncan Armstrong broke the 200 freestyle World Record to win Australia's 100th medal in Olympic competition. Since retiring from competitive swimming, Duncan has received a host of national honours out of the pool including an Order of Australia Medal and the Young Australian of the Year. A truly inspirational Australian, with a truly inspiration story. We welcome Duncan as a ChildSafe Champion for this years National ChildSafe Dinner.

Xenia Schembri - international author, speaker and counsellor. Her latest book, "Broken To Be Beautiful" is Xenia's autobiography - honest, candid and raw account of her story, creates hope and awareness for every reader. Through the struggle and fight to survive, the warrior that was deeply implanted inside of her, emerged. This is a true story of one woman's battle to overcome domestic violence and discover when all was stripped away, she found what emerged, was a restored woman, able to conquer her past. She has also written a 3-book child protection series entitled 'Brave Little Bear' written to empower families, educators and other professionals to teach self-protective behaviours to this and future generations, which gives advice and instructions on how to protect children.

Neil Milton - General Manager for ChildSafe Australia Vulnerable children need the protection of organisations. Neil is a leader who is passionate about teaching them how. Helping organisations put the child back into focus and realise the motivation is to make sure no child is abused. He has had personal experience with child abuse, and his goal is to work with organisations to give them practical, implementable steps.

Taymon Kenton-Smith - After being given a childhood bow and arrow set, Taymon began shooting back in 2001 when he was only 6 years of age. At 14 he made a promise to his grandmother to make it to the Paralympic Games. In the same year he got his first sponsorship. In 2016 Taymon began to focus solely on his dream for the 2020 Tokyo Paralympic Games.

In 2019 Taymon was put on the list for the 2020 Tokyo Paralympic Games and going into the 2019 National Para VI Championships Taymon was the favourite to win all three contests and he did not disappoint. Taymon is now ranked first among his peers for the Netherlands International Paralympic Qualification Championships. We welcome Taymon as an advocate for ChildSafe.

Corey Lum - As an passionate advocate raising awareness against child abuse, Corey lives his life to make a difference and encourage others. He lives by the words of The Big Three - "Strive. Thrive. Live." In a world where we experience so much pain and suffering, Cory brings an inspiational life as a vocal supporter for ChildSafety and child abuse awareness through fitness and physical endurance.
